Virginians "Invade" Town Again, But This Time They Are "Guests" At Luncheon

North met South at Gettysburg again on Saturday, but this time it was a friendly invasion. Thirty-two Virginians, members of the Virginia Travel Council, were guests of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg, followed by a tour of the ground over which their ancestors fought 90 years ago.

It was a "Good Will" tour, arranged by the travel council to "sell" Virginia to Gettysburgians. In return, the Virginians promised to "sell" Gettysburg to the thousands of tourists who visit the Old Dominion state each year. Local tourist interests were invited, during the luncheon, to send a delegation to the "south" in September and October. "From the time you cross the state line into Virginia, until you leave it again, you will be our guests," Robert Nelson, official of the Virginia Travel Bureau and one of those in charge of the tour, said.

Welcomed By Burgess

The luncheon, reception and tour for the visitors was arranged by N. A. Meligakes, president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce. The Virginians arrived about 11:30 a.m. Saturday in two buses, from Hagerstown, where they had spent Friday night.

Burgess William G. Weaver welcomed the delegation at the luncheon, and Mr. Meligakes extended the greetings of the Chamber of Commerce and introduced Gettysburgians and those from the immediate area who were present. "We are glad of this opportunity to play host to those of you in similar business from neighboring state," Mr. Meligakes said. "We hope you will enjoy your stay here and profit by your visit."

Mr. Meligakes gave a brief resume of the battlefield area, its 25 square miles and its 2,500 monuments and markers. "You have many visitors to your state," he said. "We hope you will point out to them that Gettysburg is worth visiting."

Introduces Visitors

The Virginia visitors were introduced by Parker Nelson and Heck Rice, of the Virginia Travel Council. The latter is also secretary of the Virginia Tourist Court Association. Among those who spoke briefly were James Robertson, mayor of Montross, Va.; Wallace Yarborough, Richmond, passenger agent of the Virginia Stage Lines; Henry Burroughs, Washington, D. C., president of the Washington Grey Lines, and Robert F. Nelson, Richmond.

"We know how important Gettysburg is to Virginia, as a gateway to our area," the latter said. "On behalf of the Virginia Travel Council," (Continued on Page 2)

All the children of the Hoffman Orphanage and the Paradise Protective, Abbottstown, will be guests of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post at the Kelly Morris Circus which the local post is sponsoring on May 12 at the old fairgrounds.

"The Kelly Morris Circus is the largest motorized wild animal circus in the country," Mr. Swope said. "We have been assured that it is a good, clean show. There are no girl shows and no gambling. If any of these crop up the circus will not be allowed to show here."

The circus opened its annual tour on March 13 at Daytona Beach, Florida. It will present two shows in Gettysburg, a matinee and evening performance.

The Legion will ask school officials to close schools at 3 o'clock the afternoon of May 12 to enable school children to attend the matinee.

A 13-year-old juvenile from Durham, Conn., who ran away from home, according to state police of the Gettysburg substation and was found working as a caddy at the Gettysburg Country Club Sunday, was taken to Harrisburg by Sgt. Joseph E. Temple today, and placed on a train. He will be met by his father, through whom arrangements were made Sunday night for the boy's return.

700 PARENTS CAMPUS GUESTS OVER WEEKEND

With an estimated 700 parents as campus guests, Gettysburg College observed its annual Mother's Day Weekend Saturday and Sunday with the crowning of Miss Patricia Keener, Lampeter, Pa., as May Queen at the annual May Day ceremonies, one of the highlights of the two-day program.

Miss Keener, a social science major, will be graduated in June. In her student days she has been a cheer leader, and a member of the Student Senate, Student Christian Association, the staff of the college radio station and has been active in women's athletics and elected to honorary fraternities. Last year she was selected for Who's Who of American Colleges and Universities.

Though elections for the honor were held several weeks ago, the winner was not announced until Saturday afternoon when the coronation ceremonies were held. Miss Keener's parents, who did not know she had won the honor, were on the campus to attend the annual Mother's Day program. The queen was crowned by Mrs. Lois Kerstetter Snook of Enola, Pa., who won the honor last year.

Local Girl In Court

Members of the Queen's Court also had been kept secret. They were: Maid of Honor, Betsy Paul, Havertown; Senior Court members, Phyllis Shearer, Camp Hill, and Nina Williams, Gettysburg; Junior members, Barbara Franke, Johnstown, and Dee Elwood, Delmont; Sophomores, Courtney Lenhard, Drexel Hill, and Grace Haabstad, Springfield; Freshmen, Jan Sachs, Emmaus, and Bonnie MacGibeny, Woodbury, N. J.

Other events in the weekend program include college luncheons and dinners with similar events at the fraternity houses, the Gettysburg-Mt. Saint Mary's baseball game, the Gettysburg-Franklin and Marshall tennis matches, a coronation display and special departmental exhibits and Mother's Day services. The program ended with the final concert of the college choir in Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium Sunday evening.

Chaplain Korte Preaches

A special program for the mothers was held Saturday evening in the Plank Memorial gymnasium at 8 o'clock when Miss Keener brought greetings to the mothers and Mrs. Fred Rice of Hummelstown, responded. There was a talk by President Walter C. Langsam, baton twirling by Bonnie MacGibeny and selections by a college quartet.

At the annual Mother's Day service Sunday morning in the gymnasium, Chaplain Edwirth E. Korte delivered the sermon. Dr. Langsam read the scripture and the college choir sang under the direction of Parker B. Wagnild.

BLOSSOM TOUR FOR GUESTS AT COUNTY HOME

The annual "Apple Blossom" tour conducted by the Adams County Home Auxiliary for the guests at the county home will take place Tuesday morning, with about 35 of the guests scheduled to take part in the two-hour bus trip through the McKnightstown, Arentsville, Wexville, Bendersville section.

Mrs. Mervin Murray, Fairfield, chairman of the committee in charge, said the guests would travel in a bus provided by Roy Martin, Gettysburg, R. 4, but asked persons who may have cars and the time to follow in a motorcade behind the bus.

The cars are needed, she said, in case any of the elderly guests become ill and need to be transported to the home immediately, before finishing the tour.

Won't Delay Trip

Those who wish to join the motorcade are asked to be at the county home at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. In event of inclement weather the tour will be held Wednesday morning at the same time.

Unseasonable weather has delayed the peak of the apple blossom season, but the committee decided to make the tour at the scheduled date despite the fact that only a part of the bloom will be seen. The decision to hold the trip on the previously scheduled date was made because postponement would cause great disappointment among the older residents at the home, Mrs. Murray said.

Those scheduled to be on the bus as attendants for the guests include Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Dale Lawver, Mrs. Lloyd Kleinfeiler and Mrs. Clarence Smith.

Police said a car driven by Earl Noel, 19, of New Oxford R. 1, slowed down and was struck in the rear by a car operated by Kenneth Klinedinst, 28, also of New Oxford R. 1. Klinedinst paid a fine for driving too fast for conditions, and Noel for failing to signal.

Damage to the Klinedinst car was estimated at $200 and to the Noel car at $450. No one was injured.

DENIES WAGING CARD CAMPAIGN FOR POST OFFICE

Richard M. Smyers, scheduled to be replaced this month as acting East Berlin postmaster, Friday night denied charges by Rep. S. Walter Stauffer that he conducted a post-card campaign from behind his post office window to retain his appointment.

The charge was made by Stauffer Friday as he declared that "people of this district voted for a change . . . and we will fill appointments of this kind with Republicans wherever practical."

Smyers dared Stauffer to take a survey of East Berliners to determine whom they want for postmaster.

He explained that a friend had had the postcards printed and distributed to residents to sign in his behalf and send to the 19th district congressman. He said that he had obtained about 10 signatures on cards, but none of them while he was on duty at the post office.

Got Four In Lobby

Four of the signatures, Smyers added, were obtained by him in the post office lobby while he was on a two-hour leave of duty. He noted that he has taken no day off since his appointment a year ago by ex-Rep. James F. Lind, because of the press of duties, but that occasionally he has taken two and four-hour leaves of duty.

Smyers also denied a charge that the postcard campaign had no bearing on his replacement by a Stauffer appointee because it was carried out before announcement was made of the new appointment. He said there had been rumors in East Berlin of his pending replacement before Stauffer made the announcement, and that between 50 and 75 of the cards were signed after the new appointee was named.

He contended that a list of the persons who signed postcards was provided subsequently by the congressman. (Continued on Page 7)

Young Mother Kills Four Children With Carbon Gas

MAHWAH, N. J. (AP)—A 29-year-old woman, estranged from her ex-football star husband, killed her four young children by carbon monoxide poisoning yesterday in the garage of their fashionable home.

In an apparent change of mind, she pulled some of the youngsters from the family station wagon, but not in time to save them, police said.

"Why didn't it kill me, why didn't it kill me?" moaned Mrs. Carol MacDonald when police found her in the living room of her home.

Deputy Atty. Gen. Ellis Kopp said she apparently tried to take her own life, and had left six suicide notes. However, he said, there was no evidence that Mrs. MacDonald actually tried to kill herself.

A hazy story from the woman failed to establish whether she had been in the death car with her two sons and two daughters, who ranged in age from 2 to 7 years.

Police quoted Mrs. MacDonald as saying, "At least the children won't have anything to worry about now."

FOIL PLANS OF TWO PRISONERS TO BREAK JAIL

Plans of two prisoners in the Adams County Jail to make their escape Saturday night were nipped in the bud, and the men, Donald William Dederick, Hanover R. D., formerly of Teaneck, N. J., and Vernon Harsch, Philadelphia, a native of Sheridan, Wyo., were in solitary confinement today under maximum security measures.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter said today the filing of charges growing out of the attempted jail break was being considered but no action had been taken as yet.

According to the district attorney, Sheriff Dorsey Schultz made a check of the cellblocks at the jail between 7:30 and 8 o'clock Saturday night after the prisoners had been locked in their cells.

Dederick and Harsch had been placed in one cell. They were not there when the sheriff made the rounds. State police were immediately notified, according to the district attorney, and a thorough check of the entire jail was made.

Find Missing Men

MORE THAN 100 AT 5TH DISTRICT SESSIONS HERE

More than 100 attended the convention meeting of the Fifth District of the Pennsylvania Department, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, at the Methodist Church here Saturday.

The meeting was described by officials as the largest in the six years such sessions have been held. There were 89 delegates and officers registered and about 20 guests. All five past district presidents were present.

Mrs. Irene Eisenhart, York, was elected president of the district for the coming year. Among local women selected as officers were Mrs. Bess Kapp, Biglerville, junior vice president; Mrs. Doris Settle, color bearer, and Maybelle McKenrick, press correspondent.

Give Memorial Service

A memorial service written by Mrs. Kapp and presented by members of the local tent of the DUV was well received by the group, who asked it be repeated at the state department convention and be continued as the memorial service each year.

Among the local women taking part in the memorial service were Mrs. Kapp, Mrs. Barbara Aughinbaugh who sang "Memories," "The Soldiers' Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Fred Swisher; Mrs. Emma Trostle, Mrs. Mary Felix, Mrs. Doris Settle, Helen Worthington, Dorothy Martin, Est'r Hayberger, Maybelle McKenrick and Flo Shirley. Those taking part wore white dresses with red, white and blue streamers.

Eight department officers attended the session. In addition to the seven listed in previous news stories, Sara M. Commers, Johnstown, department inspector, was also present. A group of 30 members of the Harrisburg tent attended by bus in honor of the outgoing president, Mrs. Mildred M. Warner, Harrisburg, a member of their group.

The luncheon in connection with the convention was served by the Women of the Methodist Church. Miniature tents served as favors. Red white and blue flowers served as decorations.

Young Mother Kills Four Children With Carbon Gas

A murder charge was placed against the woman in Bergen County Jail. Kopp said he was uncertain whether she would be arraigned today or taken to a mental hospital for observation.

Mrs. MacDonald and her 32-year-old husband Kenneth, former Rutgers football star, have been separated since February, when he filed a divorce suit charging her with adultery with a Brooklyn, N. Y., psychiatrist, said Nathan Allyn, acting chief of Bergen County detectives.

Leaves Children In Car

According to police, Mrs. MacDonald awakened the children about midnight Saturday, herded them into the station wagon, drove to an all-night service station and filled the gas tank.

After returning home, she shut the garage doors, leaving the children in the station wagon with the engine running.

Then she went into the house and wrote the series of suicide notes. Later she tried to save the children. The victims were Thomas, 2, Catherine, 3, Sharon Carol and Bruce, both 7.

Albert Wildasin, Spring Grove, was sentenced to 60 days in jail and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of failing to reveal his identity at the scene of an accident. He was told a parole would be considered in 30 days if he paid damages and costs in that time.

Roy Naugle, Payetteville R. 2, was fined $100 and costs on each of two charges, of selling beer without a license and selling for consumption not on the premises.

6 Months In Jail

Stephen T. Smith, Harrisburg R. D., was given a suspended sentence on a charge of operating after a suspension and was directed to pay a fine of $100 for the use of the county and costs.

Joseph Clarence Rupp, Newville R. 3, was given a six to 12 months sentence, beginning March 17, and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of theft of a truck and driving without the owner's consent.

Vernon Harsch, Sheridan, Wyo., was sentenced to serve one year in the Allegheny Workhouse and pay the costs on a charge of driving without the consent of the owner.

Woman On Probation

George P. Smiley, York Springs R. 1, who was told "this is another case of a person trying to take the law into his own hands and making a botch of things," was sentenced to pay $150 and the costs on a charge of assault and battery.

Meta Evelyn Yingling, Gettysburg R. 5, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year on a charge of larceny and ordered to pay the costs. One of the conditions of the probation will be that the psychiatrist who is treating her shall give periodic reports to the probation officer.

Harold L. Wetzel, York, was sent to jail for 60 days and directed to pay the costs on a charge of operating an auto without the owner's consent.

Sentence Suspended

Guy Leo Smith, Fairfield, was given a suspended sentence on worthless check and forgery charges on condition he repay the amounts of the checks, $95. The suspension was given because he is currently on parole on a similar charge from Franklin County and the court expressed its belief that he was not the ringleader in a group who passed the checks.

Albert Smith Robinson, Baltimore, was given a suspended sentence and placed on parole for one year on condition he pay the costs, when he faced the court on a charge of larceny of an auto.

Smith had just completed serving 27 months on a charge of transporting the same auto, after he had stolen it in Littlestown, across the state line. That sentence had imposed in Baltimore under federal laws concerning the driving of stolen vehicles across state lines.

George Louis Orndorff, Emmitsburg, was given a suspended sentence and ordered to pay $100 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of failing to reveal his identity at the scene of an accident.

Probation Orders Issued

Dennis J. Eline, York, now confined at White Hill on several charges in York County, was given a suspended sentence on condition he make restitution and pay the costs on burglary and larceny charges.

State police said there had been several persons in the store after Lau had returned from the bank with the money.

hiding behind the locker, Mr. Teeter said. The Haight cell is located on the top deck at the southeast corner of the cell block, he said.

All three prisoners were questioned. Dederick, according to the district attorney, said he "wanted to see" his lawyer. Harsch said he and Dederick had decided to break out of the jail. At supper Saturday night both men kept their spoons, he said. One of them also had a clasp knife. Harsch said they picked Haight's cell because of its location, and went to the cell before the prisoners were locked in, telling Haight to "keep quiet," and threatening him with the knife.

Both Sentenced Saturday
Harsch said, according to Mr. Teeter, that they planned to dig around the cell window with the spoons and knife and make their escape, waiting until after the lights were turned out in the cell block. Haight said Harsch stuck the knife in his back, and warned him to "keep quiet." The plot was discovered before either Dederick or Harsch had an opportunity to break out.

Dederick was sentenced Saturday to from 11 to 23 months in the Adams County Jail for the larceny of an automobile at Littlestown, and Harsch to a year in the Allegheny County workhouse for theft of a truck owned by the Bowen-McLaughlin Co. at the latter's Cross Keys terminal.

Annual Observance Of "Clean Up Week" In Littlestown Beginning Today; Promoted As Safety Measure

The annual observance of "Clean Up Week" in Littlestown begins today and Fire Chief Glenn E. Ohler has announced that cleaning up and safety go hand in hand and suggests that spring house cleaning be done with a view to fire safety as well as cleaning. The annual session with mop, broom and dustpan "is not only necessary and satisfying but can save one's life," he said. While scrubbing away the past year's dirt, everyone in the family should make an effort to also make the home fresher by eliminating danger spots where fire is not likely to strike. "Don't just shift things from one place to another, empty them out, add a large metal wastebasket to the cleaning equipment and empty it often, disposing of piles of newspapers, old rags and all combustible material in the yard, the garage and every room and closet of the house from attic to cellar," is the advice of the fire chief. All electrical appliances and devices should also be checked as well as the fire-fighting equipment and the heating units too, need a thorough going over.

It is not generally known that, because of a blue pinafore given to a little girl forty years ago, some ten thousand American communities observe Clean Up Week. A school teacher in Cleveland dressed one of her ragged little girls in a new pinafore, transforming her from an urchin to a pretty little girl. Because her parents noticed the contrast between the clean child and the family surroundings they silently began tidying the house, repairing the fence and planting flowers in the yard. Neighbors followed suit and a former slum district became a respectable part of town. In 1931, Cincinnati tried the first city wide clean up-drive for a whole week.

The annual Sunday School picnic of St. Mary's Reformed Church will take place Saturday, July 25, in Christ Church grove, Littlestown. There will be a chicken and ham supper served to the public by the members of the congregation.

Rubies are made of corundum. If an electric current (DC) is passed through water, oxygen will rise from one terminal and hydrogen from the other.

2'000 At Second Annual Spring Musical On Littlestown Memorial Field Sunday; Judy Long Is Queen

Approximately 2,000 people, including the more than five hundred children who participated, were present for the second annual spring musical on the Littlestown Memorial Field on Sunday afternoon, presented by the elementary grades of the Littlestown Joint School System.

The musical was under the direction of Mrs. Joan C. Wilt, music supervisor, assisted by the grade school teachers. A perfect May Day provided an excellent setting for the pageant, which depicted a May Day in 1850, on a Southern plantation, complete with costume.

A feature of the program was the crowning of a May queen by Karl Bankert, Sixth Grade student. Judy Long was May queen, chosen by popular vote of the grade children from among six candidates. The remaining five, Janet DeHoff, Susie Durbin, Joan Sentz, Shirley Showvaker and Patricia Yingling, all chosen by their Sixth Grade classmates as candidates, were the queen's honor attendants.

John H. Riley, elementary principal of the jointure, has announced that the annual Sixth Grade promotion exercises will be held on Tuesday, May 19, at 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

F. J. Smith, Littlestown R. D. received the award at the Appreciation Day program on Saturday evening.

Pre-season tryouts for newcomers to the Littlestown Little League Baseball will take place this evening, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 6 o'clock at the Little League diamond on the playground. These tryouts are scheduled for all boys between the ages of eight and 12 years, who did not play on any team in the league last year. Boys who were on one of the four teams during the initial year will not report for these tryouts, but they will practice with their respective teams at the call of their managers.

This year, the managing personnel has planned to have each boy try out for the Little League, placed on a team. Last year, the league's first operation in Littlestown, because of the large turn out of boys, some were unable to be placed on teams. This year it is planned to give every boy an opportunity to play.

The Rev. G. Howard Koons presented the sermon at the worship service on the fourth Sunday after Easter, in Christ Reformed Church. A special anthem was sung by the choir. The ushers at yesterday's service were Harold E. Shoemaker, Irvin R. Stock, Lewis E. Bair and Donald L. Berwager. The Sunday bulletins were given by the King's Daughters Sunday School class.

The Rev. Mr. Koons announced that next Sunday Christ Church will observe Mother's Day. On this occasion the Reformed congregations of the Mercersburg Synod make contributions to the Homewood Church Home for the Aged, near Hagerstown. Other announcements were as follows: Tuesday, May 5, 9:30 a.m., the Nevins Regional Guild will hold its 12th annual meeting in Zion Reformed Church, Arendtsville. Mrs. Stanley R. Sell is the delegate to the meeting from the Women's Guild will hold its May meeting at the home of Miss Doris Ridinger, Taneytown, R. 1. Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock, May session of the Consistory at the church. Wednesday, 8 p.m., monthly meeting of the Women's Guild at the church, with Mrs. Harvey W. Schwartz as leader. Tuesday, May 12, 6:30 p.m., annual Mother-Daughter banquet in the church grove. Reservations for the banquet should be made with Mrs. Harry C. Wildasin this week. The King's Daughters and Young Men's Bible classes are serving a turkey supper in the church grove on Saturday, May 13 from 4:30 to 7 p.m. Supper will be served by ticket only. Tickets should be purchased in advance from any member of the Men's class. The serving is for the benefit of the church building fund.

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE RUG
It was once a beautiful rug. Our eyes looked with pride and happiness upon it as it was first viewed in our small home. It was a luxury, and luxuries most always mean some sort of sacrifice, as this did, for it was an oriental, woven by hands that kept spraying its beautiful colors with love that crept from fingers that were often tired.

Years passed on. The rug had lived, and showed, as lives do, the beat of time and wear. Babies had rumped upon it, knowing nothing of its beauty or its origin. Day by day it had known feet—father's, mother's, the kiddies and friends had tramped it thousands of times.
Few things last forever, but good rugs last a long time — many an entire lifetime. But they show their wear and scars, just like the faces of human beings, and their bodies.
Somehow I like the worn rug.
Because it has so much history woven into its whole. It exhibits its usefulness and its character. I have looked upon very old rugs and have sat in auction sales rooms where they have brought a large price. People bought them because they had a history, and apparently did not mind the thin places and the apparent wear of feet.

I thought of all this as I looked upon the rug that had been purchased long ago. A new one would look more attractive to visitors, and its age would not even be given a thought, for new things only attract. They do not tell a story. The story has to come later.
Not until the petals of a flower start to drop to the earth do we begin to get the significance of its beauty and its spent existence.
A rug has to take punishment, just like our lives must, but it is what we have given out to others that counts. The worn rug gives out all that it has to give. Most of all, however, it gives out service and memories. Memories of feet that have honored the home, and its happy hospitality. That little old rug still has the imprint of the fingers that first wove love into it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Keep Having Fun."

Gettysburg Building Association:
The annual meeting of the associaon Saturday night. The election for officers resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen: President, Ed-

William A. Duncan; secretary, Rufus managers, J. W. C. O'Neal, D.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," by the New out a pretty full audience at Agricultural Hall on Thursday night.

The performance is represented to have been quite creditable. The company expects to return to Gettysburg and give three more entertainments, July 23, 24 and 25.

Springs Hotel: Mr. E. E. Balcom,
the new lessee of the Springs Hotel, announces that it will open for guests on the 1st of June. He has reduced the price to $2.50 per day; $12 to $14 per week; $40 to $50 per month. Mr. B. has a national hotel reputation in connection with leading hotels including the St. Nicholas and Fifth Avenue Hotels, New York,
the Arlington, Washington, D. C., and will doubtless attract to the Springs Hotel many new visitors.
Gettysburg presents many attractions as a summer resort, being the seat of first class collegiate and theological institutions and the theatre of the great battle that practically sealed the fate of the rebellion. The pure and invigorating air, high, rolling land, and unusually beautiful scenery, which predominate here, will compare favorably with most summer resorts.

NO FUNDS FOR
STATE WORKERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House rules committee met today to decide whether to accept Senate cuts in their deficiency appropriation bills or make state employees wait longer for their pay.

Whichever way it turns out, the State workers are on the short side. Some 147 Welfare Department employees haven't been paid for weeks due to a lack of funds.
And over the week end, Dr. Russell E. Teague, state health secretary, announced that an additional 4,200 doctors, dentists and school nurses in the School Health Program won't be paid now either.

The funds would have been forthcoming last week if the Senate had passed, and Gov. John S. Fine had signed, legislation making deficiency appropriations of nearly 12 million dollars to numerous departments.

Although the House already had approved the bills, the Senate held them up and struck out seven million dollars earmarked for the School Employees Retirement Fund.
Other portions of the measures were approved.

The bills then went back to the House for agreement on the amendments. Action was deferred until this week, however.

TOKYO, (AP)—A recently repatriated GI has listed the names of 75 Americans—eight of them Pennsylvanians—still in prison camps in North Korea.

Sgt. Harry A. Cutting, of Belle Plaine, Iowa, and Kansas City, men were in "good shape."

Pennsylvanians on the list were:

Bailey, Reading; William R. Doc,
Clymer; Joseph C. Lawson,
Waynesburg; Harry Fleeger, East

Red Defense Minister Calls
For Peaceful Moves In May 1
Talk In Moscow's Red Square

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's defense minister, Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, called on leaders of the Western world Friday to back up their recent peaceful statements with peaceful actions.

The head of the nation's armed forces obviously had President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill in mind.

But until the West acts on its expressed desire for peace, Bulganin declared in a short May Day address in Moscow's Red Square, Russia will continue to "show due care for ensuring the defense and security of our country."

Inspects Troops
He demanded substantial evidence—particularly a reduction of armaments in lands near the Soviet Union—as a sign that other countries seek a peaceful solution of the world's problems.

The speech was a highlight of Moscow's May Day celebration which also included a short military review and a longer workers' parade.

Bulganin opened his speech by declaring that "friendship among peace-loving peoples was growing." Just before speaking, he inspected troops drawn up in Red Square and nearby streets.

Cold War "Ruining All"
Formations of jet planes flew overhead as the military parade got underway.

Bulganin's statement came as Pravda, the Soviet Communist party's newspaper, called for an armistice "in the cold war which is ruining all people." An article by Ilya Ehrenburg, a well-known Soviet writer, said:

"If an armistice is possible in the hot war which is tearing Korea apart, then everyone understands there is also possible an armistice in the cold war which is ruining all peoples, an armistice which must be followed by peace."

Fighting In Japan
Outside the Iron Curtain, workers of the free world also marked the holiday with rallies, speeches,

BIG TEST FOR EISENHOWER'S
LEADERSHIP
ON FOREIGN AID

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower faces what some congressmen say will be a major test of his leadership when Congress considers foreign aid this week.

Hearings open tomorrow before the combined Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees, with administration spokesmen expected to recommend a

FRED M. SAIGH BEGINS HIS LONG TERM IN PRISON

ST. LOUIS (P)—Fred M. Saigh, former St. Louis Cardinals owner, surrendered today to a U. S. deputy marshal to begin a 15-month prison term for income tax evasion.

"It's a terrible thing to happen to a guy who doesn't deserve it," the former major league club owner remarked.

Saigh surrendered to Deputy Marshall Les Davison in a downtown office building. They left immediately for Terre Haute, Ind., federal penitentiary.

Saigh appeared visibly affected as he walked out of the building to face photographers. But he smiled at the photographers and said: "Have your fun boys for the last time."

He then handed a statement to a newsman which read: "Until this humiliating thing happened to me I thought all Americans were governed by the same set of laws, rules and regulations. Now I know better."

"The estate of the man who was associated with me for so long settled all government claims quietly for $5,500. (He apparently was referring to his former associate, the late Robert E. Hannegan, sometime U. S. postmaster general and part-owner of the Cardinals). Claims essentially were based on the same alleged deficiencies."

"I hope grand juries of the future will allow themselves more time for investigation so their findings will not be based on hearsay, false insinuations and letters illegally handed them. Then no other innocent man will suffer at their hands and only then."

It was signed in his own handwriting in pencil.

Apparently it had been hurriedly prepared this morning.

There is a civil tax claim of $558,951 for the years 1944 through 1950 pending against Saigh. He has posted a half million dollars in bonds with the government as a guarantee with the Internal Revenue Department against possible loss while the claim is in litigation.

Another Bullet Game Cancelled

The Gettysburg-Mt. St. Mary's College baseball game scheduled to be played here Saturday was cancelled due to wet grounds and threatening weather. Due to the heavy schedule for the Bullets during the next few weeks it was decided not to reschedule the game.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the Bullets were listed to tangle with Mt. St. Mary's at Emmitsburg.

Lehigh University will play here Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. and next Saturday the Bullets play at Dickinson.

Bonneauville, defending South Penn Baseball League champion, got off to a good start Sunday by registering a 9-1 victory over Harney on the winner's diamond. The winners broke the game wide open with a five-run rally in the last of the seventh inning. T. Gardner, Bonneauville hurler, permitted but four hits. Ben Sneeringer rapped two doubles to lead the attack.

In the tightest game of the afternoon, Taneytown edged Brushtown 2-1 at Taneytown. A run in the last of the seventh inning, a deadlock broke up a beautiful pitchers' duel between Murren of Brushtown and Unger of Taneytown. Brushtown outthrew its opponents six to four.

Bendersville collected 10 hits, including a homerun by Black, to pound out a 10-3 victory over Greenmount on the Bendersville field. Pitzer, Bendersville hurler, was in superb form as he gave up but five hits and struck out 17 batsmen.

In another tight game Hunterstown edged Emmitsburg 4-3 at Hunterstown.

SEE REVERSAL IN PREAKNESS FOR DARK STAR

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—The aura of invincibility that surrounded Native Dancer through 11 successive victories was brushed aside by Dark Star in the 79th Kentucky Derby. But don't think the 3-year-old turf champion was decided in that race.

When the bay son of Royal Gem II hit the wire a good head in front of the Dancer after Saturday's mile and one-quarter run at Churchill Downs it proved only one thing—the Vanderbilt colt does not yet rank with the thoroughbred greats of American turf history.

See Reversal At Pimlico

But the margin of Dark Star's victory was so small the decision might well be reversed when the representative of Harry F. Guggenheim's Cain Hoy Stable and the Vanderbilt Grey hook up again in the $100,000 added Preakness at Pimlico.

You can be sure of one thing in the Preakness, Eric Guerin, Native Dancer's jockey, isn't going to let Dark Star get such a big lead as he did Saturday, especially since the Preakness distance is one-sixteenth of a mile shorter than the Derby.

The Saxon Stable's Invigorator trailed by five lengths in third place. Royal Bay Gem, the third choice, was another two lengths back to beat highly regarded Correspondent out of the smallest part of the $118,100 gross purse.

J. Bates Respectfully announces to the citizens of Gettysburg and its vicinity that he has just opened a Daguerrean Room, above the Watch-maker's shop of Mr. Frazer, on Chambersburg St., for the purpose of delineating "the human face divine" by means of a new and beautiful art of the Daguerreotype. Having a thorough scientific and practical knowledge of the truly wonderful discovery, he feels confident of producing a style of pictures superior to any ever before offered in this place.

A Daguerreotype for 50 Cents: Can be had at Weaver's Gallery, in Chambersburg street. Pictures taken in all kinds of weather, and will be put up at the Gallery in all the different styles of the day, at prices varying from 50 cts. to $6.
SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Local Items: The Observatory on Cemetery Hill is now ready for visitors.
S. Mc. Swope Esq., and Edw. J. Cox, Esq., have formed a partnership for the practice of law.
The Gettysburg National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, the 1st National Bank 3 per cent.
The East Berlin Band came to town Wednesday morning. It has been engaged for the Red Men demonstration.
Dr. C. E. Goldsborough, of Hunkerstown, assisted by Dr. J. M. Radebaugh, of this place, removed on Friday, a large melanoid cancer from the back of Mr. David Eicker, of Liberty township. Mr. Eicker is doing well.

Appointed: Edward J. Cox, Esq., has been appointed Justice of the Peace by Gov. Hartranft, in place of A. J. Cover, Esq., deceased. He received his commission on Friday.

Improved Order of Red Men: The Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men of Pennsylvania, assembled in this place, in the Court House on Tuesday morning. One hundred and fifty Tribes were represented. The sessions of the first and second days were taken up with the consideration of the reports of the Great Sachem and of various committees.
Our streets have been enlivened by the presence of numerous visitors. Their general appearance and deportment have made a favorable impression on our community.
The public demonstration on Thursday was not as large as expected. Massoit Tribe of Emmitsburg and Washitta Tribe of Benderville were in line—each accompanied by a brass band. The members of the Grand Council brought up the rear, many of them wearing very handsome regalia. The East Berlin band led the procession, marshaled by Major Benner and a number of assistants. After marching over the prescribed route, they halted in front of the Court House, where a meeting was organized on motion of Past Sachem Wm. B. Meals.

Gettysburg Building Association: The annual meeting of the association was held in the Court House on Saturday night. The election for officers resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen: President, Edward G. Fannestock; vice president, William A. Duncan; secretary, Rufus E. Culp; Treasurer, John Culp; managers, J. W. C. O'Neal, D. Kendlehart, Wm. T. Ziegler, Jeremiah Culp, Rufus E. Culp.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," by the New York Opera House Company, drew out a pretty full audience at Agricultural Hall on Thursday night. The performance is represented to have been quite creditable. The company expects to return to Gettysburg and give three more entertainments, July 23, 24 and 25.

Spring Hotel: Mr. E. E. Balcom, the new lessee of the Springs Hotel, announces that it will open for guests on the 1st of June. He has reduced the price to $2.50 per day; $12 to $14 per week; $40 to $50 per month. Mr. B. has a national hotel reputation in connection with leading hotels including the St. Nicholas and Fifth Avenue Hotels, New York, the Arlington, Washington, D. C., and will doubtless attract to the Springs Hotel many new visitors.

Gettysburg presents many attractions as a summer resort, being the seat of first class collegiate and theological institutions and the theatre of the great battle that practically sealed the fate of the rebellion. The pure and invigorating air, high, rolling land, and unusually beautiful scenery, which predominate here, will compare favorably with most summer resorts.

Potato bugs are making their appearance.
President Hayes will be in Gettysburg on Decoration Day.

CONVALESCENCE
(According to the women)
For what he wants, at us he'll shout.
Once more he's started to complain.
And that's a sign, beyond a doubt,
That he is getting well again.
The doctor's rules he disobeys.
To please him now we try in vain.
Ill-tempered arguments he'll raise.
And he's begun to smoke again.

He says he's tired of toast and tea,
And sick of stuff we have to strain.
Once more he's cross as he can be.
He's getting like himself again.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE RUG

It was once a beautiful rug. Our eyes looked with pride and happiness upon it as it was first viewed in our small home. It was a luxury, and luxuries most always mean some sort of sacrifice, as this did, for it was an oriental, woven by hands that kept spraying its beautiful colors with love that crept from fingers that were often tired.

Years passed on. The rug had lived, and showed, as lives do, the beat of time and wear. Babies had romped upon it, knowing nothing of its beauty or its origin. Day by day it had known feet—father, mother, the kiddies and friends had tramped it thousands of times. Few things last forever, but good rugs last a long time—many an entire lifetime. But they show their wear and scars, just like the faces of human beings, and their bodies. Somehow I like the worn rug. Because it has so much history woven into its whole. It exhibits its usefulness and its character. I have looked upon very old rugs and have sat in auction sales rooms where they have brought a large price. People bought them because they had a history, and apparently did not mind the thin places and the apparent wear of feet.

I thought of all this as I looked upon the rug that had been purchased long ago. A new one would look more attractive to visitors, and its age would not even be given a thought, for new things only attract. They do not tell a story. The story has to come later. Not until the petals of a flower start to drop to the earth do we begin to get the significance of its beauty and its spent existence. A rug has to take punishment, just like our lives must, but it is what we have given out to others that counts. The worn rug gives out all that it has to give. Most of all, however, it gives out service and memories. Memories of feet that have honored the home, and its happy hospitality. That little old rug still has the imprint of the fingers that first wove love into it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Keep Having Fun."

NO FUNDS FOR
STATE WORKERS

HARRISBURG (P)—The House rules committee met today to decide whether to accept Senate cuts in their deficiency appropriation bills or make state employees wait longer for their pay.

Whichever way it turns out, the State workers are on the short side. Some 147 Welfare Department employees haven't been paid for weeks due to a lack of funds.

And over the week end, Dr. Russell E. Teague, state health secretary, announced that an additional 4,200 doctors, dentists and school nurses in the School Health Program won't be paid now either.

The funds would have been forthcoming last week if the Senate had passed, and Gov. John S. Fine had signed, legislation making deficiency appropriations of nearly 12 million dollars to numerous departments.

Although the House already had approved the bills, the Senate held them up and struck out seven million dollars earmarked for the School Employees Retirement Fund. Other portions of the measures were approved.

The bills then went back to the House for agreement on the amendments. Action was deferred until this week, however.

Red Defense Minister Calls
For Peaceful Moves In May 1
Talk In Moscow's Red Square

MOSCOW (P)—The Soviet Union's defense minister, Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, called on leaders of the Western world Friday to back up their recent peaceful statements with peaceful actions.

The head of the nation's armed forces obviously had President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill in mind.

But until the West acts on its expressed desire for peace, Bulganin declared in a short May Day address in Moscow's Red Square, Russia will continue to "show due care for ensuring the defense and security of our country."

Inspects Troops
He demanded substantial evidence—particularly a reduction of armaments in lands near the Soviet Union—as a sign that other countries seek a peaceful solution of the world's problems.

The speech was a highlight of Moscow's May Day celebration which also included a short military review and a longer workers' parade.

Bulganin opened his speech by declaring that "friendship among peace-loving peoples was growing." Just before speaking, he inspected troops drawn up in Red Square and nearby streets.

Cold War "Ruining All"
Formations of jet planes flew overhead as the military parade got underway.

Bulganin's statement came as Pravda, the Soviet Communist party's newspaper, called for an armistice "in the cold war which is ruining all people." An article by Ilya Ehrenburg, a well-known Soviet writer, said: "If an armistice is possible in the hot war which is tearing Korea apart, then everyone understands there is also possible an armistice in the cold war which is ruining all peoples, an armistice which must be followed by peace."

Fighting In Japan
Outside the Iron Curtain, workers of the free world also marked the holiday with rallies, speeches.

Parades. There was some fighting, however.

In Japan, 10,000 jeering leftist youths tangled with 1,500 police when the youths refused to disperse at the end of what had been a peaceful parade by half a million laborers through downtown streets.

One of the biggest May Day observances was in Berlin, where East and West staged rival shows less than a mile apart. In the Soviet sector workers marched for hours past a reviewing stand of top Communist government chiefs and Russian officials. West Berliners massed in front of the ruined Reichstag to hear their anti-Red leaders defy Communist encroachment.

New York police banned the annual march there, asserting it had become a communistic affair. A meeting in downtown Union Square—okayed by the police in the interest of free speech and assembly—was scheduled instead.

Pittsburgh (P)—Carnegie hero medals have been awarded nine men who saved a U. S. Air Force pilot from his burning jet plane in Alaska.

The men pulled pilot Donald C. Seiler, then 24, from the wreckage after his craft plunged into a wooded swamp near Anchorage Aug. 3, 1951. He recovered from multiple injuries.

In awarding the rescuers bronze medals on Friday, the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission said the men braved gasoline fed flames and exploding machine gun bullets to reach Seiler.

In all, medals were given to 22 persons in 10 states and Alaska. Funds for the commission were left by the late steel master, Andrew Carnegie.

BIG TEST FOR EISENHOWER'S
LEADERSHIP
ON FOREIGN AID

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower faces what some congressmen say will be a major test of his leadership when Congress considers foreign aid this week.

Hearings open tomorrow before the combined Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees, with administration spokesmen expected to recommend a $5,800,000,000 program for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Free Europe's progress toward building a defense against any Communist aggression, whether aid emphasis should be shifted from Europe to the Red-threatened Far East, and how to substitute trade for aid—all these and other questions are due for a heavy working over.

Dulles To Testify
Administration witnesses will include Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Dulles, in outlining the administration's foreign policy, has said it contemplates possibly giving more aid to the Orient and less to Europe, with the European nations strengthening their economies through more trade.

Dulles announced Saturday that the U. S. is feeding "critically needed military items" to the anti-Communist defenders of Laos in Indochina. He did not say what these items were, but it was learned they included two or three dozen big cargo planes, which can carry 64 paratroopers or a great deal of materiel, among other supplies.

Some GOP For Cut
Chairman Short (R-Mo.) of the House Armed Services Committee said on a CBS television program yesterday the U. S. may have to fight to keep Russia out of Indochina and the Middle East.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) called the invasion of Laos "one of the most serious things that has happened."

Although no serious suggestion to eliminate all foreign aid is expected in Congress, the President may find members of his own party in the forefront of those demanding heavy reductions.

FRED M. SAIGH BEGINS HIS LONG TERM IN PRISON

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Fred M. Saigh, former St. Louis Cardinals owner, surrendered today to a U. S. deputy marshal to begin a 15-month prison term for income tax evasion.

"It's a terrible thing to happen to a guy who doesn't deserve it," the former major league club owner remarked.

Saigh surrendered to Deputy Marshall Les Davison in a downtown office building. They left immediately for Terre Haute, Ind., federal Penitentiary.

Saigh appeared visibly affected as he walked out of the building to face photographers. But he smiled at the photographers and said:

"Have your fun boys for the last time."

He then handed a statement to a newsman which read:

"Until this humiliating thing happened to me I thought all Americans were governed by the same set of laws, rules and regulations. Now I know better."

"The estate of the man who was associated with me for so long settled all government claims quietly for $5,500. (He apparently was referring to his former associate, the late Robert E. Hannegan, onetime U. S. postmaster general and part-owner of the Cardinals). Claims essentially were based on the same alleged deficiencies."

"I hope grand juries of the future will allow themselves more time for investigation so their findings will not be based on hearsay, false insinuations and letters illegally handed them. Then no other innocent man will suffer at their hands and only then."

It was signed in his own handwriting in pencil.

Apparently it had been hurriedly prepared this morning.

There is a civil tax claim of $558,951 for the years 1944 through 1950 pending against Saigh. He has posted a half million dollars in bonds with the government as a guarantee with the Internal Revenue Department against possible loss while the claim is in litigation.

In the tightest game of the afternoon, Taneytown edged Brushtown 2-1 at Taneytown. A run in the last of the seventh to break a 1-1 deadlock broke up a beautiful pitchers' duel between Murren of Brushtown and Unger of Taneytown. Brushtown outlived its opponents six to four.

SEE REVERSAL IN PREAKNESS FOR DARK STAR

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The aura of invincibility that surrounded Native Dancer through 11 successive victories was brushed aside by Dark Star in the 79th Kentucky Derby. But don't think the 3-year-old turf champion was decided in that race.

When the bay son of Royal Gem II hit the wire a good head in front of the Dancer after Saturday's mile and one-quarter run at Churchill Downs it proved only one thing—the Vanderbilt colt does not yet rank with the thoroughbred greats of American turf history.

See Reversal At Pimlico

But the margin of Dark Star's victory was so small the decision might well be reversed when the representative of Harry F. Guggenheim's Cain Hoy Stable and the Vanderbilt Grey hook up again in the $100,000 added Preakness at Pimlico.

You can be sure of one thing in the Preakness, Eric Guerin, Native Dancer's jockey, isn't going to let Dark Star get such a big lead as he did Saturday, especially since the Preakness distance is one-sixteenth of a mile shorter than the Derby.

The Saxon Stable's Invigorator trailed by five lengths in third place. Royal Bay Gem, the third choice, was another two lengths back to beat highly regarded Correspondent out of the smallest part of the $118,100 gross purse.

Jimmy Byran Wins At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. (AP)—Jimmy Byran, Phoenix, Ariz., won the inaugural Sweepstakes 30-lap feature race on the Williams Grove speedway here yesterday in 13.29.34.

Sostillon set a new track mark in turning in the fastest qualifying time of the day. He did 24.4 seconds against the 24.18 record set last Oct. 19 by Duane Carter, Fresno, Calif.

READING WILL SPEND MILLIONS ON EQUIPMENT

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The president of the Reading Co. has disclosed the railroad will spend more than seven million dollars in 1953 to add equipment to its facilities. Joseph A. Fisher, in a speech prepared for delivery to a luncheon of the Financial Analysts of Philadelphia, said the money will be spent for four new tug boats, 100 cement cars and 27 diesels. The total cost is estimated at $7,108,725, he added.

Fisher said the railroad, the nation's largest hauler of anthracite coal, will pay cash for the four tugs, costing $1,376,600. The cement cars and the diesels, costing $815,930 and $4,916,195, will be financed under an equipment trust, for which bids will be opened on May 13.

See $134 Million Revenue
The speech was a detailed analysis of Reading operations for the past three years, intermingled with a background of the industries and customers now situated along the Reading line.

Fisher said the company estimates its revenue for the year will be $134,500,000 with net income approximately $12,200,000, or 9.1 cents of the revenue dollar.

In 1952, the company had railway operating revenues of $131,954,000 and net income of $11,676,000, amounting to 8.8 cents of the revenue dollar.

Buying Diesels

Fisher said the railroad's largest continuing expense is the purchase of diesel locomotives. With the addition of diesels in 1953 the freight service will be 81 per cent dieselized and the switching service 88 per cent.

Discussing what he termed two "minor viruses" in the railroad's operating system, Fisher noted a decline in passenger traffic, something he said is "common virtually to all of the railroads in the country." In addition, he cited the "difficulties which face the anthracite industry."

Cutting Costs

Fisher said the percentage of anthracite moved to market by the Reading Co. has been increasing over the last few years and the line now handles 42 per cent of the total.

Turning to the decline in passenger numbers, Fisher said the company has managed to cut its cost per passenger by operating economies resulting "from the discontinuance of lightly patronized trains and stations, together with the increased use of diesel power."

Army Promises To Review Gap Decision

WASHINGTON (P)—The Army has promised Pennsylvania congressmen it will review its decision to withdraw from Indian Gap, Pa., and will provide a written report.

There was no indication, however, that the Army has changed its plan to halt activity at Indian Gap Sept. 1.

Sens. Martin and Duff and Reps. Fenton and Mumma, all Pennsylvania Republicans, said they have received numerous protests on the deactivation order, especially from residents of Schuylkill, Northumberland, Lebanon and other counties in the Indian Gap vicinity.

The congressmen informed the White House and Pentagon of their constituents' views and included their own requests for a report on the reasons for the order and the expected results.

Korean Schools Can Be "Adopted"

WASHINGTON (P)—South Korean schools, bombed-out and make-shift but jammed with pupils can be "adopted" by American schools, clubs and other organizations.

Milton S. Eisenhower, the President's brother and head of the American-Korean Foundation, in a statement yesterday said groups which want to help can send food, clothing and food supplies.

He said information can be gained by writing CARE 669 First Ave., New York City, or the National Education Association, 1201 Sixteenth St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

HARRISBURG (P)—An unofficial low bid of $2,116,600 was given by A. E. Oblock, Unity, to the State Highways Department for relocation of nearly seven miles of State Route 872 in Cameron County.

The department said in announcing the bid recently that the road must be relocated in order to complete construction of a dam on the First Fork of the Sinnemahoning Creek, a West Branch Susquehanna River tributary.

Allies Suggest Pakistan As POW Caretaker And Warn Reds Time Is "Fast Running Out"

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Allies nominated Pakistan today as a neutral caretaker for war prisoners who won't go home, and warned the apparently surprised Reds: Time is "fast running out" in the Korean truce talks.

Although Pakistan was one of the four Asian nations listed by the Reds as acceptable neutrals, the Communists sat mum.

Without even mentioning the Allied choice the Reds asked and received a recess until 11 a. m. tomorrow, possibly to consult higher Red officials.

Tells Reds Plainly

Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., chief U. N. delegate, nominated Pakistan at the beginning of the meeting and then told the Reds:

"We are obliged to tell you once again that we will not engage in protracted and fruitless discussion during the current negotiations," which began April 25.

The Communists Saturday suggested Pakistan, Burma, India and Indonesia as acceptable hosts for the 48,000 Red prisoners who won't go home.

Pakistan Third

Pakistan was the third nation nominated by the United Nations. First was Switzerland, which the Reds opposed. Then Sweden. The Communists insisted on an Asian nation. They want the reluctant POWs shipped to the neutral country for screening after an armistice is agreed upon. The Allies want a neutral country to assume control of them in Korea.

Harrison told reporters: "The current negotiations are really no different from last summer." The Allies broke off the meetings Oct. 8 when the Reds kept stalling on the prisoner exchange question.

Harrison said no time limit has been set for the armistice talks, but twice inside the conference hut he delivered an implied warning that he would end the talks again if the Reds did not begin to produce.

Hits "Continued Evasion"

Harrison reminded the Reds that they mentioned Burma, Indonesia, Pakistan and India as suitable Asian neutrals.

He said that unless they had named these four for propaganda purposes, "we must assume that you consider each of the four" to be neutral and competent and therefore suitable.

Harrison told Nam: "You have again failed to name your candidate for the neutral nation. After all the effort our side has made to reach an equitable compromise in this issue, even nominating one of the Asian states indicated by you are suitable, the continued evasion by your side can only be considered as inspired by motives other than those of reaching an equitable agreement."

"Time in this discussion is fast running out. Are you prepared to accept Pakistan as the neutral nation? If not, we have no further issue to discuss with you."

7-GAME WIN STREAK PUTS ELMIRA ON TOP

By The Associated Press

Elmira's Pioneers, winners of six of their last seven games, held down first place in the Eastern League today.

The Pioneers' winning streak was snapped yesterday by Wilkes-Barre in the second game of a doubleheader, 3-2.

Elmira got an assist from Scranton, which swept a doubleheader from second-place Schenectady, 5-0 and 3-2. The loss toppled the Blue Jays into second place by a half game.

Reading Drops Pair

Third-place Reading, which started the season with a seven-game winning streak, dropped a doubleheader to Binghamton, 2-1 and 1-0. The Triplets beat the Indians Saturday, 5-4.

Albany split a twin bill with Williamsport, losing the first game 5-4 and winning the second, 8-0. The Senators beat the Athletics, 4-2, Saturday night.

Elmira's Doug Gostlin won his second game of the season 8-2 by allowing the Barons five scattered hits. In the second game, the Pioneers were held to only two hits by Bill Fogg and Al Thune. Elmira defeated Wilkes-Barre, 8-4, Saturday.

Pitching Made Difference

Pitching also was the story yesterday at Binghamton, where Steve Kraly tossed his second successive shutout to beat Reading's Billy Joe Davidson, 1-0. Kraly gave up three hits and Davidson two. Binghamton took the first game on Cal Neeman's single in the 13th inning.

The Scranton Miners made the stock—compared to $48,037,950, or $1.06 a share, for the same period last year.

The firm reported net sales of $440,072,496, an increase of approximately 57 million dollars over the first three months of 1952.

gnessman's office for the Republican appointee, Levere Burgard.

Regretted Signing

According to Stauffer, more than 100 persons told Burgard they were unaware that he wanted the post-mastership and that they regretted having signed cards for Smyers. Smyers, however, said Friday night that "a good 300" East Berlin residents have expressed support for him since his replacement was announced.

Smyers is a Democrat and Burgard a Republican.

A veteran of World War II in which he suffered a leg wound and ear injuries, Smyers has expressed disappointment in civil service employment for which, he says, he expected some job stability. He left a Mechanicsburg Naval depot job to take the borough postmastership.

Burgard, also a veteran, is a barber in East Berlin. He is expected to take over the job, paying $4,770 a year, sometime this month.

most of five singles in each game as they handed Schenectady two defeats. Harley Grossman pitched a five-hit shutout in the first game.

At Williamsport, Albany's Jim Tully tossed a four-hit shutout against the Athletics in the second game after the Senators dropped the first in the 13th inning on short-stop Frankie Stauffer's error.

Shallow Sowing Now In Favor For Garden Plants

When seeds are sown directly in the garden, they are either sown in drills or hills, or they are broadcast. Drills are shallow trenches making a straight row into which seeds are dropped. Hills are not elevations, but merely points at which plants are desired. Several seeds are sown to produce one plant, the strongest being allowed to develop. In modern practice, which favors shallow sowing, a drill may vary from a slight depression in the soil, made by the edge of a board, to a furrow half an inch deep, drawn with the hoe handle. For peas, beans, and corn, a drill one or two inches deep may be made with the edge of the hoe blade. Not even sweet peas need be sown deeper than this.

While drills are used chiefly in the vegetable plot and cutting garden, where plants are grown in rows, hill planting is useful for the larger annual flowers which are spaced some distance apart in the border. Vegetables planted in hills include the vine crops, bush squash, and pumpkins.

With a trowel, dig a shallow hole, mix in the bottom from a tablespoonful of plant food for most crops, to as much as a pint for watermelons; cover this with a layer of fresh soil, sow and cover seed. Mark the location of the hill, so it will not be disturbed in cultivation.

These simple precautions will insure against the failure of a sowing, which is likely to result when the soil is not properly prepared, or the seed is too deeply covered, or where the location of the sowing is forgotten and it cannot be looked after.

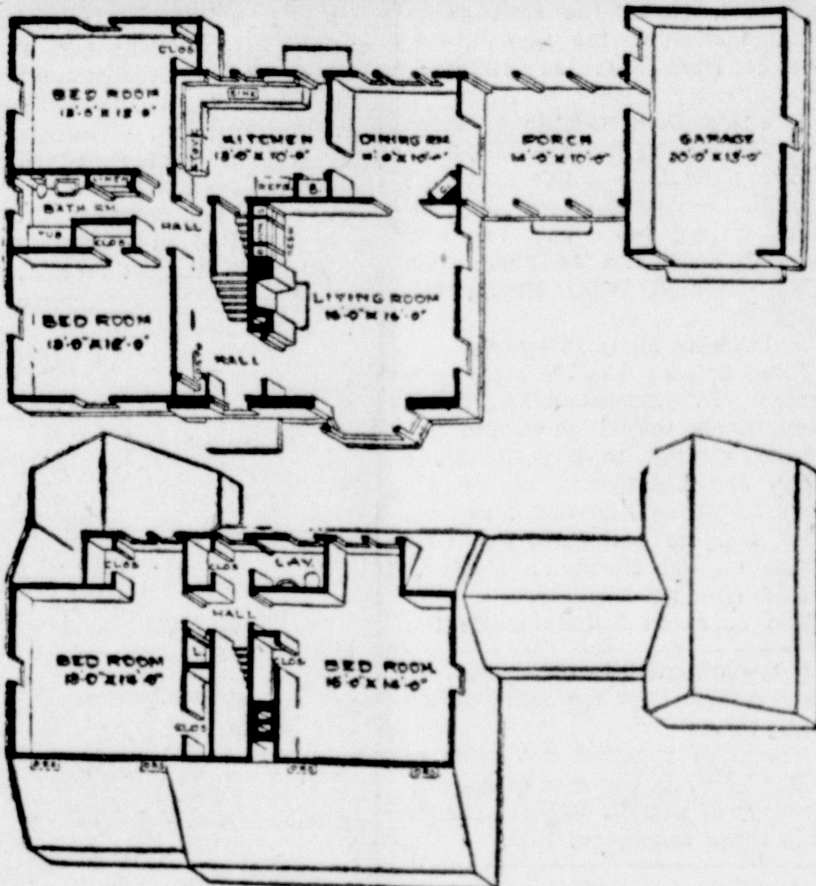

Moisture as well as warmth is necessary to germinate seed; and while spring rains usually provide it, the garden hose should be used when rains fail. Seeds require at least a 50 degree soil temperature to germinate, some much higher than that. When sown early, and likely to lie in cold soil waiting for warmth, they may be protected from molds and fungi by dusting with a disinfectant. A tiny amount into the seed packet and shaken well is sufficient to coat the seeds.

For a good flavor change, add a little curry powder to condensed cream of celery soup.

Simple in exterior design, "The Liberty" relies for extra decorative charms upon such details as blinds at the windows and front door, the old fashioned lanterns at either side of this doorway and the brass door knocker. The cut stone front and three windowed bay are the two most attractive and interesting architectural features of the house exterior.

The front entrance is located about in the center of the house and opens on an entry hall. There is a coat closet in the left wall of his hallway for the convenience of both your friends and your family. To make it an easy matter to reach any room in the house without going through the living room, the entry hall leads into another hallway that connects with all the rooms on the first floor of "The Liberty."

bedrooms.

Opening off the right of the entry hall, the living room is the largest room in "The Liberty"; it measures 16 feet square. The three windowed bay in the front wall and the large fireplace in the left wall combine to make this large room very pleasant. Built-in bookshelves along the left wall between the fireplace and the back wall, and a desk also against this wall, in the center of the line of shelves, transforms this section of the room into a library-study.

Also well lighted and ventilated, the dining room is 11 feet by 12 feet in dimensions. The large picture window, flanked by the smaller windows in the back wall forms a charming background for the dining room set—especially if your house is so located that there is a beautiful natural view to be seen through this window or if you plant a lovely garden that can be enjoyed from inside as well as from outside your home.

Linen Drawers
Build storage drawers for table linen under the china closet in the right front corner of the room and then you won't have to go dashing over to the regular linen closet each time you want to change the table linen. Reached through the French door in the right wall of the dining room, the attached porch, or breezeway, measures 14 feet by 10 feet.

If it is glassed or screened in, this porch can serve as a summer dining room or as a cooler, more comfortable living room where you, your family and your friends can relax and enjoy many a pleasant afternoon or evening during the warmer weather.

GOP WILL BID FOR SALES TAX AID AT CAUCUS

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republican leaders will ask holdouts in their own ranks a direct will-you-or-won't-you question on the proposed state-wide sales tax to-day.

The much kicked-around one percent levy comes up for new discussion at the GOP caucus in mid-afternoon, just prior to the opening of the House session.

"Our meeting should be a brief one," Rep. Albert W. Johnson, GOP floor leader said. "The issues are drawn. We just want to give the fellows who needed more time."

Need 4-5 Votes

For five weeks, Republican leadership has been trying to marshal its full strength 109-vote majority to put the tax through the House. Every attempt has failed. Efforts culminated in a four-hour caucus last week when all stops were pulled in an all-out try to sink the holdouts.

Johnson says there are "four or five" votes still needed to pass the tax which would more than wipe out the 157 million dollar difference between the state's expected income and outgo in the 1953-55 budget.

Gov. John S. Fine said 157 million dollars in new revenue is needed to meet the $1,400,000,000 in estimated state expenditures for the next two years.

Asked whether this would be the final attempt to round up the necessary support for the sales tax, Johnson replied:

"Nothing is ever final in the Legislature until the bill is killed on the floor."

AMPLE COAL RESERVES

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Frank W. Earnest Jr., president of the Anthracite Institute, told the Pennsylvania Travelers Protective Association convention that the nation's coal reserves are sufficient for 150 years, while oil reserves may last only 12 and natural gas about 20.

RISKY DEVICES

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Fluoroscopic shoe fitting machines, says a New Jersey state health official, are simply sales devices — and risky when used on children.
